

Borrow Our Zero Waste Station for your Next Event!

It's the easy way to reduce waste at your community event.

Are you a community group holding a special event this summer and want to reduce the amount of waste your event creates? Consider borrowing the newly minted Zero Waste Station. Developed by the North Shore Recycling Program, with assistance by the District of West Vancouver and Metro Vancouver, the Station is available to community groups on the North Shore to borrow at no charge. Click here to find out more.